

JOSEPHINE COUNTY DEMOCRATIC CENTRAL COMMITTEE
Minutes for meeting of April 11, 2017

Pledge of Allegiance was recited.

Treasurer's Report: Dorothy Yetter: $431 in income. $314 in expenses. Balance: $6346.00.

Precinct Committee Person Report: Shari Morin. We will meet at a conference center to go over VAN (Voter Access Network) which has voter info. We have 42 PCPs. 25 precincts have no PCP. If you'd like to know more, contact ShariMorin@yahoo.com. There are 14,000 Democrats in Josephine County. Arden McConnell was appointed as a PCP captain.

Dates: Pat Bath shared the calendar and reminded us about the program at SOU on Thursday by the Youth who are suing the federal government on behalf of future generations because government isn't doing enough about climate change. She encouraged people to make signs for the Tax and Health Care March on Saturday, Walden's Town Hall, etc.

Finance committee: Dorothy Yetter: Please sign up to help and to share ideas for fund-raising so we can support candidates, get bumper stickers, etc.

Resist!: Gary Eby spoke. We are all working together with Rogue Indivisible and IVIndivisible. There will be a Resist! demonstration in Cave Junction on May 3, 12-2 and future Wednesdays.

Commissioner Lily Morgan spoke about the levy.

Dixie Owens moved and Sharin seconded "We support the jail levy." Motion carried.

Nancy Lundquist spoke in favor of continuing the 3-year levy for the Animal Shelter. There are 3 Animal Control officers now and a new cat facility. 150 cats have gone to foster families. All were adopted. None needed to be euthanized. The levy would be $.08/$1000 averaging $1/month. No animals are adopted out till they have been spayed or neutered.

Dixie Owens moved "We Support the animal shelter." Motion carried.

Highway cleanup was April 1. A Big Thank you to the 8 who helped.

Commissioner's meetings: Lynda Spangler sent around a sign-up sheet for volunteers to attend the Commissioners meetings. She would like to have enough for 2 people to attend each meeting. If we had 8, each would only have to attend once a month.

Office opening is delayed due to rain.

Dixie won the drawing and contributed her share to the JCDCC

Meeting adjourned.

Pat Bath, Secretary
